

Determination and Perseverance Choice Board

Please read the directions in each square, and then find the related Google Classroom document (under the “Choice Board # 1 topic), complete and turn in. The “theme” of this Choice board is to help us reflect on the themes of determination and perseverance as we go through this tricky times. In order to receive credit for the choice board you must complete 6 of the 10 projects. You must also complete the “opinion” block

Commonlit: go to https://www.commonlit.org/en/students/student_lessons/4402352 Read the speech about Determination and then answer the questions/address the prompts that follow	Good News! Everyone can use a little good news! Luckily, there’s a site for that: Good News Network!! Go to the site and choose an article, then find and complete the corresponding document in Classroom (“Choice Board # 1 Topic)	Description: As you’re stuck in your home or neighborhood you are probably being forced to look at many of the things in your direct environment over and over again. Go to the related document in Classroom to work on artistically describing some of the “things” you see.	Ted Talk: Flipgrid Watch this talk and then go to this Flipgrid and create a video responding to the questions.	Poem: Choose one of the poems about determination below: "If" by Rudyard Kipling "The Invitation" by Oriah Mountain Dreamer "Equipment" by Edgar Guest "Good Timber" by Douglas Malloch "Still I Rise" by Maya Angelou And then find the related document in Classroom and complete the assignment
Playlist: When you think of the words “determination” and “perseverance” what songs come to mind? Find the related document in Classroom and complete.	Letter to someone: In “the old times” (or if you’re Brynn’s husband currently) people sent each other letters to express themselves, especially after they have had time (as we have) to reflect. Find the assignment document in Classroom.	You must complete this brick! Obviously we all have an opinion, but we need to back that up with research and be willing to acknowledge that of the other side. Go to the document in Classroom to complete the assignment.	Short Film or Show Review: Everyone likes a good movie! Go here and find a film of interest to watch. Then find the corresponding assignment in Classroom and complete	TikTok: Let’s have a little fun. Create a Tik Tok video in which you encapsulate the theme of this board. Go to the assignment in Classroom to complete.

Note: In order for each assignment to be considered to be “complete” they must use full sentences (in many cases paragraphs) that utilize correct capitalization, spelling, and use of punctuation.